Lord of the Three in One

The Spread of a Cult in Southeast China

Kenneth Dean

Lin Zhao'en (1517–1598) set out to popularize Confucianism by combining Confucian studies with Daoist inner alchemical techniques and Buddhist Chan philosophy into something he called the Three in One Teachings. The Three in One cult has undergone a remarkable revival in post-Mao China: today Lin is worshipped in over a thousand temples by tens of thousands of cult initiates. In this book, based on ten years of field work, Kenneth Dean vividly documents the surprising reemergence of this cult.
