

Law & Society Review
BASIC STYLE SHEET

All manuscripts should be typed double-spaced on one side only. Rejected manuscripts cannot ordinarily be returned. While manuscripts need not conform to this style sheet at the time of submission, all manuscripts must include footnotes and a list of references, and all accepted manuscripts must be revised by the author to conform to the style of the Review. The rules listed below supplement the manuscript information on the inside front cover of the Review. Authors are urged to consult recent issues of this journal for further illustrations. A more detailed style sheet is available from the editorial office.

1. CITATIONS: All notes that consist merely of supporting citations should be placed in parentheses in the text. They should follow the statement they support and be in the following style:

(last name of author year: page number or numbers to which you refer, if any)

EXAMPLE: . . . the opposition in Paris (Rudé 1967:167).

2. FOOTNOTES: All footnotes should be numbered sequentially and placed immediately after the text. They should contain only substantive comments and additional references not immediately relevant to the text.

3. REFERENCES: References are to be placed at the end of the manuscript and double spaced. For more than one publication by the same author, list them in chronological order. For more than one publication in one year by the same author, use small letters to distinguish them (e.g., 1970a; 1970b).

a. BOOKS: Last Name, First name (year) Title of Book. City: Publisher.

EXAMPLE: Arnold, Thurman W. (1935) The Symbols of Government. New York: Harcourt, Brace & World.

b. ARTICLES: Last Name, First name (year) "Title of article," volume number Journal initial page of article (month and day only if each issue is separately paginated).

EXAMPLE: Stern, Curt (1970) "The Continuity of Genetics," 99 Daedalus 882.

4. TABLES AND FIGURES: Tables should approximate the appearance of printed tables. Figures should be camera ready. Tables and/or figures should be placed at the end of the text, after footnotes and references. Their location within the text should be indicated as follows:

Table 1 about here

5. ABSTRACTS: All articles should include an abstract of no more than 100 words.

“[The Hollow Hope] sets a new standard for studies of judicial impact, and will cause many lawyers to revise their view of the relation between law and society.”

— Judge Richard A. Posner, Seventh Circuit, U.S. Court of Appeals
