Philosophical Studies

An International Journal for Philosophy in the Analytic Tradition

Editor: Keith Lehrer, University of Arizona, U.S.A.

Editorial Assistant: Vincent Lazara, University of Arizona, U.S.A.

Board of Consulting Editors: David Braybrooke, Joseph L. Camp, Jr., L. J. Cohen, James Cornman, Alan Donagan, Keith Donnellan, Mary Hesse, Risto Hilpinen, R. M. Martin, Terence Parsons, Gunther Patzig, A. M. Quinton, Jerome Schneewind, Robert Sleigh, Jr., Judith Thomson.

Philosophical Studies fills the urgent and growing need for space devoted to quick publication of timely contributions to analytic philosophy. It emphasizes the rapid exchange of notes and criticism. To provide balance and scope the editors will, on occasion, solicit contributions, comments and elucidations from philosophers whose voices might not otherwise be heard when the spotlight of discussion points in their direction.

Philosophical Studies welcomes papers in all areas of analytic philosophy. It recognizes that there are divergent tendencies within the analytic movement, and requires only that contributions represent an application of methods of analysis and clarification of meaning. Papers the content of which falls primarily within the scope of the natural, social or psychological disciplines will be considered only if this content is subordinated to the purposes of philosophical analysis.

Subscription price per volume of six issues Dfl. 95.- / US $38.00, plus Dfl. 20.- / US $8.00 for postage and handling. Two volumes will be published yearly. Personal subscription price on request.

The British Journal of Aesthetics

The Journal of the British Society of Aesthetics

One of the leading organs for philosophical discussion on the international scene, providing a medium for study of the philosophy of art and the principles of aesthetic appreciation and judgement. Experience of both fine and applied art is examined from the point of view of the psychologist, the sociologist, the historian, the teacher and the general critic. By bringing together discussions of general philosophical aesthetics and articles on the principles of appraisal which apply in the various arts severally, the journal works towards a better understanding of the analogies and differences between them. Established 1960.

The Journal of Philosophy announces the publication of Dewey and His Critics, edited by Sidney Morgenbesser. From 1905 until his death, John Dewey published some of his most significant papers and replied to some of his most important critics in the pages of The Journal of Philosophy. These exchanges tell the story of the development of his philosophy over 50 years and the formation of American philosophy through that period. The Journal of Philosophy presents in one volume Dewey's seminal papers, the critical comments, and his answers to such critics as Russell, Lewis, Santayana. The Introduction by Sidney Morgenbesser situates Dewey and his critics in the perspective of contemporary philosophical thought. 760 pages. $8.00 in paper, $15.00 in cloth, plus 60¢ postage.
