Omotic Languages Studies

Edited by RICHARD J. HAYWARD

It is twenty years since the Omotic family of languages was first clearly separated from Cushitic. For progress in the field to be made, the great need is for the publication of grammatical descriptions and reliable vocabularies of individual languages. Papers in this volume cover Gimira, Beng, Yemsa, Shinasha, Zayse, Gamo, Wolaitta, Ko:rete, Aari and Dime, as well as the Omotic family generally.
