

IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT

Journal of British Studies

Journal of British Studies and Cambridge University Press are delighted to announce a new publishing partnership

Editors

Brian Cowan, McGill University, Canada
Elizabeth Elbourne, McGill University, Canada

From 2013, Journal of British Studies will be published by Cambridge University Press on behalf of the North American Conference on British Studies (NACBS). Subscriptions, including 2013 renewals, and customer service issues will be managed by Cambridge.

Journal of British Studies's transition to Cambridge brings a wealth of benefits to subscribers, including:

- All institutional subscriptions to Journal of British Studies will include online access to current articles via Cambridge Journals Online (CJO)
- Availability of complete online archive: Volumes 1 through 50, plus the complete archive of Albion, a complementary journal formerly published by the NACBS
- Dedicated customer service and sales teams will help you manage the transition of your subscription
- Clear and familiar lines of communication are available for claims and subscription renewal

If you are a current subscriber, you will receive your regular renewal notice. You may return this notice directly to Cambridge or continue to order through your subscription agent. Please note that the journal will no longer be available as part of the JSTOR Current Scholarship Program. If you would like to subscribe, the contact details for our Customer Services Departments are listed in the column to the right.

Instructions for contributors

Editorial policy

Urban History occupies a central place in historical scholarship. Contents include research-based articles, historiographical and methodological surveys, and surveys of urban development in individual countries. As part of a major contribution to research, Urban History provides detailed bibliographical references for an average of 1,000 classified and indexed items, culled from monographs and edited collections, and from approximately 560 periodicals.

1. Submissions

Submissions from authors on all aspects of urban history are invited. Articles of a comparative or thematic nature are encouraged, as are articles which raise methodological issues, and those which seek to place the development of individual towns or cities in a wider framework. No historical period is excluded.

Articles submitted for publication should be sent to The Editors, Urban History, Centre for Urban History, University of Leicester, Leicester LE1 7RH, UK, or by email at sg201@le.ac.uk or rhs4@le.ac.uk Authors wishing to submit articles on North American topics should contact Robert Lewis on lewis@geog.toronto.ca

Submission of a paper will be taken to imply that it is unpublished and is not being considered for publication elsewhere. Upon acceptance of a paper, the author will be asked to assign copyright (on certain conditions) to Cambridge University Press.

Contributors are responsible for obtaining permission to reproduce any material in which they do not hold copyright and for ensuring that the appropriate acknowledgements are included in their manuscript.

2. Manuscript preparation

Articles should be no longer than 8,000 words, inclusive of footnotes and tables, and should be double spaced throughout. A summary of 75 words should also be provided.

Further information and detailed 'Instructions for contributors' visit www.journals.cambridge.org/uhy.

This journal issue has been printed on FSC-certified paper and cover board. FSC is an independent, non-governmental, not-for-profit organization established to promote the responsible management of the world's forests. Please see www.fsc.org for information.
