Aims and Scope

The Netherlands Yearbook of International Law was first published in 1970. It has two main aims. It offers a forum for the publication of scholarly articles of a more general nature in the area of public international law including the law of the European Union. In addition, it aims to respond to the demand for information on state practice in the field of international law. Each Yearbook therefore includes an overview of state practice of the Netherlands.

Under the combined subscription arrangements this volume of the Yearbook is linked to Volume 50 of the Netherlands International Law Review. Orders should be sent to: Cambridge University Press, Customer Service Department, The Edinburgh Building, Shaftesbury Road, Cambridge, CB2 2RU, United Kingdom. For further information you may visit webpage www.asserpress.nl/cata/nyil/fra.htm.

All correspondence with regard to the contents of the Yearbook should be addressed to the Managing Editor, T.M.C. Asser Instituut, P.O. Box 30461, 2500 GL, The Hague, The Netherlands, e-mail: NYIL@asser.nl.

T.M.C. Asser Instituut - Institute for Private and Public International Law, International Commercial Arbitration and European Law

Institute Address: R.J. Schimmelpennincklaan 20-22, The Hague, The Netherlands; Mailing Address: P.O. Box 30461, 2500 GL The Hague, The Netherlands; Tel.: +3170 342 0300; Fax: +3170 3420 359; Internet: www.asser.nl.

Over thirty years, the T.M.C. Asser Institute has developed into a leading scientific research institute in the field of international law. It covers private international law, public international law, including international humanitarian law, the law of the European Union, the law of international-commercial-arbitration-and-increasingly, also, international-economic-law, the law of international commerce and international sports law.

Conducting scientific research, either fundamental or applied, in the aforementioned domains, is the main activity of the Institute. In addition, the Institute organizes congresses and postgraduate courses, undertakes contract-research and operates its own publishing house.

Because of its inter-university background, the Institute often cooperates with Dutch law faculties as well as with various national and foreign institutions. The Institute organizes Asser College Europe, a project in cooperation with East and Central European countries whereby research and educational projects are organized and implemented.

GENERAL INFORMATION FOR AUTHORS

1. Embargo

Articles submitted to NYIL should not be simultaneously under consideration elsewhere.

Acceptance of the Editors offer to publish implies, that authors agree to an embargo on publication elsewhere, either in English or another language, for a period of two years following the year of publication of the Yearbook containing the article in question.

2. Copyright

Copyright is exclusively reserved to the author(s).

3. Fees

Authors will not receive a fee, but will be represented with a copy of the Yearbook containing their article, together with 25 off-prints free of charge. Any additional copies of the Yearbook and/or off-prints can be ordered and will be charged.

4. Editorial policy

All papers are refereed. The Board of Editors reserves the right to suggest modifications and/or additions to the paper submitted, and further reserves the right to reject, or to revoke acceptance or to withhold publication of any paper.

5. Language

Authors are requested to submit their paper in English. Papers accepted for publication may, at the discretion of the Editors, be linguistically revised.

6. Proofs

The author will receive proofs for correction. Corrections should be kept to a minimum. The only corrections which should normally be necessary are those relating to type-set errors or those which take account of important material or references not previously available, or subsequent developments of notes. Substantial modifications to the text or footnotes will not be permitted, except in consultation with and with the consent of the Editors.

7. Typing

The manuscript should be typed, double-spaced with wide margins, on one side of standard A4 paper. Preferably a paper version should be submitted. However, the manuscript may also be submitted by e-mail. Pages must be consecutively numbered. The text should be divided into chapters and each chapter may be divided into sections and subsections.

Authors should carefully check for errors before submitting. Authors are responsible for accuracy of quotations, for supplying complete and correct references, and for obtaining permission where needed to cite another authors material.

The maximum length should be 450 words per page, 35 pages, including footnotes for a full article and 20 pages, for a case note. The first page should contain: full title of the article, author(s) full name(s), affiliation, address, telephone and fax and e-mail address.

For house-style please refer to the most recent NYIL.
