AMERICAN JOURNAL OF INTERNATIONAL LAW

The views expressed in the articles, editorial comments, book reviews and notes, and other contributions to the AJIL are those of the individual authors and are not to be taken as representing the views of the Board of Editors or The American Society of International Law.

SUBMISSION OF ARTICLES AND BOOK REVIEWS

Manuscripts may be sent to the Editors in Chief of AJIL, Professors Theodor Meron and Detlev Vagts, New York University School of Law, 40 Washington Square South, New York, NY 10012-1005. U.S. residents are asked to submit four copies (one copy will be returned if the author so requests). Please do not submit manuscripts via facsimile. AJIL will not consider submissions whose content has been, or will be, published before it appears in this Journal.

Book reviews are by invitation: suggestions may be made to the Book Review Office, 2223 Massachusetts Avenue, N.W., Washington, DC 20008-2864. Books for review should be sent to the same office.

Format requirements: Articles and book reviews should be double-spaced, with double-spaced notes cumulated at the end of the manuscript. AJIL generally conforms to the footnote style of The Bluebook: A Uniform System of Citation (15th ed. 1991), published by the Harvard Law Review Association, Gannett House, 1511 Massachusetts Avenue, Cambridge, MA 02138.

Computer diskettes: Authors are invited to indicate whether the manuscript is available on an IBM-compatible diskette. AJIL uses WordPerfect 5.1.

Important International Law Titles from...

THE ENVIRONMENTAL POLICY OF THE EUROPEAN COMMUNITIES, Second Edition

by Stanley P. Johnson and Guy Corcelle

This work is a complete survey of the extensive legislation on environmental policy recently introduced by the European Communities, in particular measures taken at Community level dealing with water pollution, air pollution, chemicals and waste. It also discusses legislation developed in wider fields, such as environmental impact assessment, nature conservation, and the integration of environmental policy into other Community policies, such as agriculture and development co-operation.

1995. Cloth, ISBN 90-411-0862-9,
$155.00

ARBITRATION AND RENEGOTIATION edited by Wolfgang Peter

This reference handbook for legal practitioners analyzes a variety of increasingly important questions concerning international investment agreements that come under pressure for change by one of the contracting parties — either a transnational corporation or a host country government. The seven case studies and analytical chapters are based on the author's research and the assistance of corporate and government officials.

1995. Cloth, ISBN 90-411-0037-7,
$195.00

UNDERSTANDING THE CISG IN THE USA by Joseph Lookofsky

The Convention on Contracts for the International Sale of Goods (CISG) establishes substantive new rules for international contracts. This book fills the need for a compact, yet informative, guide to the CISG. By comparison and contrast to the UCC, the author explains the CISG in terms familiar to American lawyers.

1995. Paper, ISBN 90-411-0956-0, $35.00

ESSAYS ON THE DEVELOPING LAW OF HUMAN RIGHTS

by Loukis G. Loucaides

This collection offers a critical analysis of certain human rights, such as the right to information and to personality. The author emphasizes novel or debatable aspects which have been insufficiently explored, such as civil servants' freedom of speech, and the expulsion of settlers from occupied territories. Most topics are examined in the context of the European Convention on Human Rights and, where relevant, reference is made to U.S. Supreme Court case law and international law.

1995. Cloth, ISBN 0-7923-3276-8,

INTERNATIONAL FORUM SELECTION by William W. Park

This book compares arbitration agreements with forum selection clauses that designate courts, and the relative costs and benefits of each form of dispute resolution. It focuses on the way that international lawyers can enhance the reliability of their jurisdiction selection clauses and the enforcement of the resulting awards and judgments. It also includes analysis of national statutes, international treaties, court decisions and choice-of-law questions related to forum selection.

1995. Cloth, ISBN 90-6544-883-7,
approx. $145.00

THE INTERNATIONAL CIVIL SERVANT: *An Endangered Species by Jacques Lemoine

In this book, Lemoine reviews thoroughly and authoritatively the origin of the international civil service, its evolution, characteristics, weaknesses, as well as the institutions related to it, such as the ICSC, the Pension Board, the Administrative Tribunals, etc.

LAW WITHOUT FRONTIERS:

A Comparative Survey of the Rules of Professional Ethics Applicable to the Cross-Border Practice of Law
edited by W.E.M. Godfrey

Law Without Frontiers is a comparative study dealing with the rules of professional ethics applicable to the cross-border practice of law. It covers the major jurisdictions in this respect, viz. England and Wales, France, Germany, Italy, Spain, Belgium, the Netherlands, Sweden, the USA, Canada, Australia and Japan. A separate chapter deals with the development in the context of the European Union. The study is based on a questionnaire of the IBA Section on Business Law Subcommittee on the Structure and Ethics of Business Law.

1995. Cloth, ISBN 90-411-0851-3, $126.50

COMPARABILITY AND EVALUATION
Essays on Comparative Law, Private International Law and International Commercial Arbitration in Honour of Dimitra Kokkini-Iatridou

edited by K. Boele-Woelki, F.W. Grosheide, Ewoud H. Hondius, and G.J.W. Steenboff

The contributions to this book cover the areas in which Professor Kokkini-Iatridou has taught and published: comparative law, private international law and international commercial arbitration. They are in English, German and French.

1995. Cloth, ISBN 0-7923-3157-5, $135.50

Forthcoming:

THE WORLD BANK IN A CHANGING WORLD

by Ibrahim F.I. Shibata

Cloth, ISBN 90-411-0115-2, $274.00

NEW DIMENSIONS OF PEACEKEEPING

edited by Daniel Warner

This work brings together the papers presented at a conference by the same name, which was convened at the Graduate Institute of International Studies in Geneva in March, 1994. The papers address the new role of peacekeeping and peace enforcement, and also places an emphasis upon the involvement of Japan and Germany — newcomers to the role of peacekeeper.

1995. Paper, ISBN 0-7923-3301-2, $68.00.

RESERVATIONS IN UNILATERAL DECLARATIONS ACCEPTING THE COMPULSORY JURISDICTION OF THE INTERNATIONAL COURT OF JUSTICE

by Stanimir A. Alexandrov

This study examines the reservations to the acceptance of compulsory jurisdiction included in declarations made by States under Article 36(2) of the Statute of the Permanent Court of International Justice and of the Statute of the International Court of Justice and discusses the practical application by the Court of the principle of reciprocity to such reservations in contentious cases submitted to it under Article 36(2).

This analysis attempts to show that reservations in unilateral declarations do not contribute to the decline of the Optional Clause. In fact, reservations provide for the flexibility which many States consider essential in accepting the compulsory jurisdiction of the International Court of Justice. Thus, the right to include a variety of reservations in unilateral declarations may in fact contribute to the wider acceptance of compulsory jurisdiction.

International Law Reports

E. Lauterpacht and C.J. Greenwood, Editors

Decisions of international courts and arbitrators, as well as judgments of national courts, are fundamental elements of modern public international law. The International Law Reports is the only publication in the world wholly devoted to the regular and systematic reporting in English of such decisions. Volumes 100 and 101 are the latest of these essential works of reference.

Region

Elizabeth W. Davies

Only six British dependent territories now remain in the West Indies and North Atlantic region. This book examines their legal, constitutional and practical relationships with the British government set against the territories' socio-economic, geographic and historic backgrounds. A series of contemporary case studies illustrates the practical consequences of continued dependent territory status while an examination of the range of constitutional relationships that have developed gives the book a relevance beyond this particular region and time.

Utilitarianism as a Public Philosophy

Robert E. Goodin

Discussions of a wide range of public issues such as paternalism, social welfare policy, international ethics, nuclear armaments, and international responses to the environment crisis, demonstrate the flexibility of utilitarianism in confronting the real world dilemmas of public policy.

Justice in Immigration Warren A. Schwartz, Editor

This book is the first interdisciplinary study of the fundamental normative issues underpinning immigration policy. A distinguished group of economists, political scientists, and philosophers offer a stimulating and provocative discussion of this complex topic, addressing issues such as the proper role of the state in supporting a particular culture, the possible destabilization of the political and social life of a country through immigration and the size and distribution of economic losses and gains.

The United Nations and the Nuclear Non-Proliferation Treaty

The Nuclear Non-Proliferation Treaty represents the cornerstone of efforts by the international community to prevent the proliferation of nuclear weapons while ensuring that the benefits of nuclear technology are readily available for peaceful purposes.

This publication details the Treaty and brings together, for the first time, key documents relating to the nuclear non-proliferation issue. Complementing the documents are a detailed chronology and an introduction by Secretary-General Boutros Boutros-Ghali, which provide an overview of the key role played by the Organization and its Member States in meeting the new and intrinsic challenges of the nuclear age.

The reproduced texts include:

- Treaty on the Non-Proliferation of Nuclear Weapons
- Documents of the Review Conferences and list of parties to the Treaty
- International Atomic Energy Agency documents concerning safeguards
- Unilateral security assurances to non-nuclear-weapon states given by the nuclear-weapon states
- Treaties establishing nuclear-weapon free zones in Latin America and the Caribbean and in the South Pacific

FORDHAM UNIVERSITY
SCHOOL OF LAW

MASTER OF LAWS PROGRAM

LL.M. degrees in:

BANKING, CORPORATE & FINANCE LAW
INTERNATIONAL BUSINESS & TRADE LAW

The Graduate Program of Fordham University Law School offers two courses of study leading to graduate degrees. Students may pursue either course of study on a full or part-time basis.

International business and trade law, along with banking, corporate and finance law, are vitally important and expanding areas of law today, given the interdependence of the United States and its trading partners and the convergence of the banking, corporate, insurance and other financial sectors. Fordham Law School has developed special resources and expertise in these areas. Fordham University School of Law has been the leading U.S. center for the study of European Community Law for two decades. It is also one of the few law schools in the country with advanced curriculum in banking law and regulation.
