

The Journal of American Studies

Editor

Howard Temperley,
Professor of American Studies,
University of East Anglia

Sponsored by the British Association for American Studies

The Journal of American Studies publishes work by scholars of various nationalities on American literature, history, institutions, politics, economics, geography and related subjects. Articles which cross the conventional borders between academic disciplines are particularly welcome, as are comparative studies of American and other cultures. It also publishes review essays, book reviews and, biennially, a list of doctoral theses on American topics in progress and completed at British universities.

Forthcoming Articles include:

John Braeman: Charles A. Beard: The English Experience

Hugh Brogan: Tocqueville and the American Presidency

R. A. Burchell: The Character and Function of a Pioneer Elite: Rural California, 1848–1880

Judith A. Newman: Bellow's Indian Givers: Humboldt's Gift

Michael Spindler: Dos Passos and the Visual Arts

Volume 15: April, August and December 1981

The Struggle for Land

A Political Economy of the Pioneer Frontier in Brazil from 1930 to the Present Day

JOE FOWERAKER

This vivid account of the expansion of the agricultural frontier in Brazil draws on extensive empirical research to demonstrate the dimensions and dynamics of the struggle between peasant farmers and large landowners. The characteristic mediations of class struggle on the frontier are seen to express the relations of domination achieved within the authoritarian capitalist state.

The Rancheros of Pisaflores

The History of a Peasant Bourgeoisie in Twentieth-Century Mexico

Frans J. Schryer

This case study offers 'a new perspective on the rancheros, a kind of peasant bourgeoisie, of the Sierra Alta de Hidalgo and their important role in the Mexican Revolution. The ranchero region studied is today characterized by increasing social tension, economic decline, and downward mobility of members of the peasant bourgeoisie. This is a brilliant analysis of changing networks in remote rural sectors; of links between local, regional, and national politicians; and of reciprocal payoffs and mordidas.' Latin America in Books $20.00
