Join Us

You see who our friends are.

But there are more reasons you should subscribe to Commonweal.

For our editorials that won't let you forget Vietnam as long as people are dying there. That called for President Nixon's removal a year ago.

For our columnists: Peter Steinfelds, Michael Novak, Saul Maloff, "Sisyphus" from Washington and our foreign correspondents. For Michael Murray on media and Colin L. Westerbeck on films—particularly his tough analysis of The Exorcist.

For Gordon Zahn on the future of the Catholic peace movement, Gregory Baum on homosexuality, Gabriel Kolko on the Philippines under martial law and Richard J. Neuhaus on world famine.

For our special series and issues coming soon: How Non-Catholics View the Church and The Religious Character of a University.

And book reviews by James MacGregor Burns, Wilson C. McWilliams, Eugene Kennedy, Sally TeSelle, Quincy Howe, Gerald Weales, Abigail McCarthy and many more.

We are not predictable. We expose problems and help you think about them. We tell you what we think, and welcome your disagreement—and your support.

We've been doing that for fifty years. Join us.
