

---

Political Scientist Transition and Administration Appointments — An Addendum

---

The following political scientists were either not listed in the list of Transition and Administration Appointments or have been named by President Reagan to posts since the publication of PS.

Name	Affiliation	Office
ADMINISTRATION APPOINTMENTS
Cora Prifold Beebe	U.S. Department of Education	Assistant Secretary for Administration, Department of the Treasury
Donald J. Devine	University of Maryland, College Park	Director, U.S. Office of Personnel Management
Thomas Patrick Melady	Sacred Heart University	Assistant Secretary of Education for Post Secondary Education
TRANSITION TEAM
Darrell Trent	Senior Research Fellow, Associate Director, Hoover Institute, Stanford (on leave)	Director of Policy Coordination
John Joseph Tierney, Jr.	Adjunct Associate Professor, Catholic University, Visiting Associate Professor, University of Virginia	Office of Policy Coordination

Political Scientist in the Reagan Administration

Donald J. Devine, former associate professor of government and politics at the University of Maryland and the new Director of the U.S. Office of Personnel Management.

---

Project 87

---

Project 87, the joint American Political Science Association/American Historical Association project to study the United States Constitution, held a conference on Congress in Washington, D.C. on February 2 through 4. The Conference Coordinators were Joseph Cooper and Harold Hyman of Rice University and Harry Schieber and Samuel Kernell of the University of California, San Diego. The Program included:

FEBRUARY 2

9:30 a.m.-noon

Election Patterns and Congressional Voting Behavior

Room 357, Russell Senate Office
Building

Chair: Thomas Mann, American Political Science Association

Papers: "The Electorate and Congressional
Voting Behavior in the 19th

Century." Les Benedict, Ohio State University

"Short-Term Forces in Congressional Elections: 1938-1978." Glenn Parker, Florida State University

Discussants: Richard Fenno, University of Rochester; Maxwell Bloomfield, Catholic University

2:00 p.m.-4:30 p.m.

Congress as an Institution:
Policy Making and Performance
Room 357, Russell Senate Office Building

Chair: Harold Hyman, Rice University

Papers: "Alignments and Alignment Change: The House of Representatives, 1928-1978." Barbara Sinclair, University of California-Riverside

"Congress as an Institution in First Half of the Nineteenth Century." Noble Cunningham, University of Missouri

Discussants: David Brady, University of Houston; Richard Baker, U.S. Senate

FEBRUARY 3

9:30 a.m.-noon

Congressional Leadership
Room 357, Russell Senate Office Building

Chair: Charles O. Jones, University of Pittsburgh

Papers: "Party Leadership in Times of Crisis." Larry Dodd, Indiana University

"Party, Policy and Political Leadership in Congress During the Nineteenth Century." Ballard Campbell, Northeastern University

Discussants: Roger Davidson, Congressional Research Service; Michael Holt, University of Virginia

2:00 p.m.-4:30 p.m.

Congress and Change:
Challenge and Adaption

Chair: Joseph Cooper, Rice University

Papers: "Adaptation Through Proliferation: Toward Understanding the Congressional Committee System in the Proliferating Society." Heinz Eulau, Stanford University

"Congress and Change: Fiscal Innovation in the 20th Century." Jordan Schwarz, Northern Illinois University

Discussants: Nelson Polsby, University of California, Berkeley; Herman Belz, University of Maryland

6:30 p.m.-7:30 p.m.

Reception
Columbia Foyer, Hyatt Regency Washington

7:30 p.m.

Dinner
Bunker Hill, Hyatt Regency Washington

FEBRUARY 4

9:30 a.m.-noon

Congressional Careers

Chair: Mack Thompson, American Historical Association

Papers: "Congress and the Emergence of a Political Career Structure." Samuel Kernell, University of California, San Diego

"The Court and the Congress: Elite Age Structures and Differential Recruitment." John Schmidhauser, University of Southern California

Discussants: Richard Abrams, University of California, Berkeley; Samuel McSeveny, Vanderbilt University

Project 87 has also made the following awards in its fourth competition for research support:

Peter Bachrach and Aryeh Botwinick, political science, Temple University, "Democracy and Society: Towards a Theory of Participatory Democracy."

James H. Broussard, history, Ball State University, "Redefining the Republican Constitution: The Debate Over Republican Nationalism, 1815-1820."

Theodore Eisenberg, School of Law, University of California, Los Angeles, "Enforcement and Impact of 42 U.S.C., 1983."

Charles Lofgren, history, Claremont College, "The Impact of General Fourteenth Amendment Jurisdiction on the Constitutional Law of Race, Ca. 1870-1910."

Michael Malbin, American Enterprise Institute, "Congress and the Principles of Representative Government."

Marvin Meyers, history, Brandeis University, "Political Thought of the American Founders."

Gerald D. Nash, history, University of New Mexico, "Administering the Constitution: A Short History of American Bureaucracy, 1787-1987."

Jennifer Nedelsky, politics, Princeton University, "The Role of Property in American Law and Political Thought."

Barbara Bowen Oberg, The Papers of Philip Mazzei, Farleigh Dickinson University, "The Papers of Albert B. Gallatin."

Harold J. Platt, history, Loyola University of Chicago, "Constitutional Orphan: The City in the Federal System, 1865-1930."

Donald R. Songer, political science, Oklahoma Baptist University, "The Impact of Constitutional Interpretation by the United States Supreme Court on the Decisional Tendencies of State Courts and Lower Federal Courts."

George Alan Tarr, political science, Rutgers University, and M.C. Porter, political science, Barat College, "State Supreme Courts and Judicial Federalism."

Clement E. Vose, government, Wesleyan University, "Nature and Impact of Federalism of New Public Law Litigation."

Richard A. Watson, political science, University of Missouri-Columbia, "The President's Veto Power."

Wesley T. Wooley, history, University of Victoria, "The University of Chicago's Constitution for World Government."

Also, a book, The American Constitutional System Under Strong and Weak Parties, edited by Patricia Bonomi, James MacGregor Burns, and Austin Ranney, growing out of an earlier Project 87 conference, has recently been published by Praeger Publishers. An ad for the volume is contained on page 253 of this issue of PS.

---

Eugene Eidenberg Appointed Director of the Democratic National Committee

---

Eugene Eidenberg, former Secretary to the Cabinet and Assistant to the President for Intergovernmental Affairs under President Carter, has been appointed as Director of the Democratic National Committee. Dr. Eidenberg has also taught political science at the University of Minnesota, was an APSA Congressional Fellow, and served as Administrative Deputy to the Mayor of Minneapolis and as Vice Chancellor of the University of Illinois, Chicago Circle.

---

APSA Publication List

---

The Association offers the following publications available for sale:

The American Political Science Review. Quarterly journal of scholarly articles and book reviews in political science. Included in APSA membership. Back issues: $20 per copy; $80 per volume.

PS. Quarterly journal of Association news and articles of professional concern. Included in APSA membership. Back issues: $5 per copy; $20 per volume. ($6 for the Spring issue containing the preliminary program.)

The News for Teachers of Political Science. Quarterly newspaper on education

Dr. Eugene Eidenberg