The Historical Journal

Edited by J. S. MORRILL, Selwyn College, Cambridge
and J. STEINBERG, Trinity Hall, Cambridge

Published quarterly, The Historical Journal includes papers on all aspects of British, European and world history since the fifteenth century. The best of current research is represented with contributions coming from all over the world both from leading historians and younger scholars making distinguished debuts.

Coverage

The Journal's wide ranging approach, both geographically and chronologically, is reflected in its range of articles. The Historical Journal covers the complete spectrum of historical topics, from religion to drama, from politics to science.

Each substantial issue contains between six and ten full length articles (with abstracts) and the journal also publishes shorter communications, historiographical essays, surveys of trends in particular fields, review articles, plus a lively book review section.

Recent contents

Continuity and Change

A journal of social structure, law and demography in past societies

Now in its second decade of publication, Continuity and Change defines a field of social history concerned with long-term continuities and discontinuities in the structures of past societies. Emphasising studies that draw on more than one of the traditional fields such as history, sociology, law, demography, economics or anthropology, the journal is committed to comparative studies over a broad range of cultures and time spans. It provides a balance between quantitative and qualitative data from the contributing disciplines, promoting greater dialogue and discussion among researchers and making their work accessible to a wider audience.

Subscription:

Continuity and Change is published three times a year in May, August and December. Volume 12, 1997 is £30 for Social History Society members; $44 for American Sociological Association members; £37/$56 for individuals; £65/$104 for institutions. ISSN 0268-4160.

Forthcoming contents:

Proof in canonical criminal law
JAMES A. BRUNDAGE
