

DOCUMENTS ON BRITISH POLICY OVERSEAS

The latest volumes in a series described by British Book News as "an indispensable source for all students of international history since 1945".

Eastern Europe August 1945-April 1946

How did Britain react to increasing Soviet domination of much of Eastern Europe in the aftermath of Potsdam? How did British policy-makers attempt to assess the Soviet Union's power and intentions in the early stages of the Cold War?

These issues are explored via key documents from the archives.

The Making of a Saint

The Life, Times and Sanctification of Neophytos the Recluse

CATIA GALATARIOTOU

The author examines the question: how does an individual become a saint, by focusing on one case of sanctification in medieval Byzantium. Placing Neophytos' quest within the Byzantine world in which he lived, she reveals much about social and religious conditions.
