

NEWS OF THE ASSOCIATION

Professor Dankwart A. Rustow of the Columbia University School of International Affairs and New York University is the Association's Acting Executive Secretary while the Executive Secretary, Professor I. William Zartman, is on leave during the spring semester.

The Committee to nominate MESA officers for 1970 is meeting in mid-September. All Fellows of the Association are encouraged to submit the names of possible candidates for nomination. Such names should be sent to the MESA Headquarters and Secretariat, New York University, Room 566, Waverly Building, Washington Square, New York, New York 10003 no later than September 1 of this year.

A few months ago Research Listing Cards were sent to MESA Fellows asking them to complete the card and to ask for more cards if needed. The response has been substantial but members who have not yet returned cards are urged to do so. Also, if any member would like additional cards, please address your request to the MESA Secretariat.

The International Journal of Middle East Studies, the official journal of the Middle East Studies Association, will appear in January 1970. The Journal will cover Iran, Turkey, Afghanistan, Israel, Pakistan and the countries of the Arab world, from the sixth century to modern times. Spain, Southern Europe, and the Soviet Union also will be included for the periods in which their territories were parts of Middle Eastern empires or were under the influence of Middle Eastern civilizations. The Journal will publish articles and reviews of books dealing with history, political science, economics, geography, anthropology, sociology, art history, philology and literature, folklore, comparative religion, theology and philosophy.

The Editor welcomes manuscripts as well as books and journals for review and also will include shorter notices of existing works which are reprinted. Review copies and other correspondence should be sent to: Professor Stanford J. Shaw, International Journal of Middle East Studies, Near East Center, Ralph Bunche Hall, University of California, Los Angeles, California 90024.

The Board of Directors has gratefully accepted the invitation of The Ohio State University to hold the 1970 Annual Meeting at Columbus, Ohio. The meeting dates are November 6-7, 1970.

Listings of Programs in Middle East Studies have been standardized in the Bulletin. The winter issue (No. 1) carries the annual meeting report, American and Canadian college and university programs for the following year and summer programs for the following summer. The spring issue (No. 2) contains listings of foreign college and university programs in Middle East studies as well as late summer and full year university program listings. If available, this issue will also carry the preliminary program for the annual meeting. In the fall issue (No. 3) the program for the annual meeting and the annual list of new and recently completed dissertations will appear. Colleges and universities are therefore requested to send in dissertation lists to MESA Headquarters and Secretariat before October 1 of each year and to send in their regular and summer program listings before January 15 of each year. Foreign colleges and universities are invited to send in listings of their programs no later than April 15 of each year.

The Middle East Studies Association of North America, Inc. (MESA) was organized in 1966 by a group of American and Canadian scholars on the Middle East to promote high standards of scholarship and instruction in the area, to facilitate communication among scholars through meetings and publications, and to foster cooperation among persons and organizations concerned with the scholarly study of the Middle East. The area included within the Middle East runs from Morocco to Pakistan and from Turkey to the Sudan. MESA is concerned with this area primarily since the rise of Islam and from the viewpoint of the social science and humanistic disciplines.

MESA is governed by a Board of Directors, including four officers, all of whom are elected by the Fellows at an annual meeting. Persons of scholarly attainment in Middle East studies are eligible to become Fellows. Other categories of membership (nonvoting) are Associate, Student and Institutional Member. Annual dues are $10.00 for Fellows, $7.00 for Associates, $4.00 for Students, and $25.00 for Institutions. Life Membership for Fellows and Associates is $100.00. Application for membership is made on a separate application form obtainable from the Executive Secretary, Middle East Studies Association, New York University, Washington Square, New York, New York 10003. Each application is acted upon individually. Membership is on a calendar year basis.

The Association is incorporated in the State of New York as a nonprofit corporation. It has tax-exempt status. Contributions to the Association are deductible under federal income tax regulations. In addition to the revenues from membership dues and contributions, the Association has been assisted in its work by a grant from the Ford Foundation.

The Association provides placement services for members and for universities seeking to fill positions in Middle East studies. Interested parties are invited to contact the MESA Secretariat. The MESA offices can also provide interested persons and organizations with names of specialists in Middle East subjects.
