The Encyclopaedia Africana
DICTIONARY
OF AFRICAN BIOGRAPHY

The Dictionary of African Biography is a new 20-volume work of major significance. It is written under the direction of the Secretariat of the Encyclopaedia Africana Project in Accra, Ghana, directed by Dr. L. H. Ofosu-Appiah. It represents the first tangible outcome of the dream of an African encyclopaedia conceived in 1909 by the late Dr. W. E. B. Du Bois, the first Director of the Project.

The Dictionary of African Biography is:

- A Pan-African work covering Africa North and South of the Sahara
- The most authentic and authoritative work of African biography ever prepared
- Written by Africa's leading scholars and Africa specialists
- An inter-African project prepared by Encyclopaedia Africana
- Complete with illustrations, maps, glossaries, and bibliographies
- 8½ × 11 (page size). 304 pages. Fully indexed.

Publication Schedule

Publication of Volume One (Ethiopia-Ghana) is scheduled for March 1977. Volumes are to appear thereafter at the rate of about three per year. Volume Two (Nigeria-Zaire) is also scheduled for 1977. Full schedule to be announced shortly.

The Contents of Volume One Include . . .

- Introductory Message from Kenneth Kaunda, President of Zambia ("I see an opportune moment for Africa to reveal the genius of her people . . .")
- Historical Introductions by Dr. R. Pankhurst (Ethiopia) and Dr. L. H. Ofosu-Appiah (Ghana)
- 146 ETHIOPIAN BIOGRAPHIES (ABABA ARAGAY to ZAWDITU)
- 138 GHANAIAN BIOGRAPHIES (ACQUAAH to ZIMMERMAN)
- Glossaries—Maps—Pictures—Index

The African Book World & Press: A Directory Répertoire du Livre et de la Presse en Afrique

A single source of reference to the entire book world and the press in Africa—from Algeria to Zambia.

Compiled and produced by the publishers of The African Book Publishing Record, this new directory will provide comprehensive, accurate, and up-to-date information—both in English and French—on libraries, publishers and the retail booktrade, research institutions with publishing programmes, magazines and periodicals, and major newspapers throughout Africa. Arranged alphabetically in 48 information-packed country-by-country sections, THE AFRICAN BOOK WORLD & PRESS will include details on the following:

● LIBRARIES

University and college libraries, national libraries, national and regional library boards, major public libraries, libraries at polytechnics, colleges of technology and at other institutions of higher education; as well as British Council libraries, USIS libraries, and Centre Culturel Français libraries.

Plus over 400 important special libraries, with an index to subject areas covered.

Each entry will give full name and address, telephone number, name of chief librarian, names of acquisitions and serials librarian (for the larger libraries), size of collection, serial holdings, annual book budgets, details of special collections, and more.

● BOOKSELLERS

Over 300 major booksellers, educational and school book suppliers throughout the continent. Each entry will provide full name and address, telephone number, name of chief executive, number of employees, nature of stocks held, areas of specialization and, where applicable, details of export, book promotion, and subscription services.

● PERIODICALS & MAGAZINES

Carefully selected listings of the most important magazines, journals and periodicals, with an emphasis on scholarly and academic publications, literary and cultural magazines, and journals in the areas of commerce, finance and industry. Each entry will include full name and address, name of editor, a brief outline of scope and contents, frequency, subscription rates, circulation, details whether carrying book reviews, and advertising rates and data. An index to subjects covered by the various magazines and periodicals will also be provided.

● PUBLISHERS

Some 200 active publishers—private, state-sponsored, scholarly—each entry giving full name and address, telephone number, telex/cable address and, for the majority of entries, information will also include names of senior management staff, number of employees, nature of list, areas of specialization, number of books in print, foreign publishers represented, and agents overseas where applicable.

● INSTITUTIONS/SOCIETIES

Research institutions, learned societies, and professional associations with publishing programmes, each entry listing full name and address, telephone number, name of director and/or publications officer in charge, areas of specialization, journals and special series published.

● BOOK INDUSTRY & LITERARY ASSOCIATIONS

Details of publishers' associations, booksellers' associations, library associations, writers' groups, and literary societies, giving names of secretaries and information on membership, activities, etc.

● NEWSPAPERS

Details on all of Africa's most influential newspapers. Information provided will include full name and address, telephone number, cable/telex address, name of editor-in-chief, name of book review/literary editor (where applicable), size and column width, frequency, subscription rates, plus details of circulation and basic advertising rates and data.

● OTHER FEATURES

These will include information about book clubs, literary prizes and awards, book fairs, as well as a bibliography of books, reports, and articles on publishing and book development in Africa.
