Aims and Scope

The British Journal of Nutrition is an international, peer-reviewed journal publishing original papers, review articles, short communications and technical notes on human and clinical nutrition, general nutrition, and animal nutrition. Correspondence is encouraged in a nutrition discussion forum. The Journal recognizes the multidisciplinary nature of nutritional science and encourages the submission of material from all of the specialities involved in research and clinical practice. The Journal also publishes supplements on topics of particular interest.

The British Journal of Nutrition is published monthly by CAB INTERNATIONAL on behalf of The Nutrition Society.

The Nutrition Society has as its objective the advancement of the scientific study of nutrition and its application to the maintenance of human and animal health.

Application for membership is invited from anyone whose work has contributed to the scientific knowledge of nutrition, whether such work has been in the laboratory, the field or the clinic, and whether experimental, clinical, agricultural or statistical in nature. There is also a student membership scheme with reduced subscriptions.

Particulars of The Nutrition Society and application forms for membership are available from the Honorary Secretary, The Nutrition Society, 10 Cambridge Court, 210 Shepherds Bush Road, London, W6 7NJ, UK.
