

ANNOUNCEMENTS

New Web Sites: The History of Economics Society web site can now be found at www.eh.net/HE/HisEcSoc/. There is new web site containing resources related to the study of the history of economic thought, and the address is www.eh.net/HE/.

HES 2001 Conference: The History of Economics Society's 2001 Conference will be held at Wake Forest University, Winston-Salem, North Carolina, USA, June 29-July 2, 2001. Further information on the conference will be mailed to Society members and can also be obtained from the Society's web site (www.eh.net/HE/HisEcSoc/).

Call for Papers and Sessions: Persons wishing to present a paper or organize a session for the 28th Annual Meeting of the History of Economics Society at Wake Forest University, Winston-Salem, NC, June 29–July 2, 2001 should submit an abstract of 200 words or less for a paper or 400 words or less for a session by February 15, 2001. For sessions, organizers should include names and addresses of participants. Proposals on all aspects of the history of economic thought are welcome. Selected papers from the conference will be published in the Journal of the History of Economic Thought. Proposals may be submitted to Dan Hammond, conference organizer and HES President-Elect, via the conference website (<http://www.eh.net/HE/HisEcSoc/carchive/HES2001/>), by email (hes2001@wfu.edu), by fax (336-758-6028), or by mail (Dan Hammond, Department of Economics, Box 7505, Wake Forest University, Winston-Salem, NC 27109-7505, USA).

HES Sessions at the 2001 ASSA Meetings: The History of Economics Society is sponsoring several sessions at the ASSA meetings in New Orleans on January 5–7, 2001. Further information regarding these sessions can be found on the HES web site: www.eh.net/HE/HisEcSoc/.

HES Best Article Competition: The History of Economics Society welcomes nominations for the Society's 2000 Best Article Competition. The award will be presented at the 2001 meeting of the Society to be held at Wake Forest University, Winston-Salem, North Carolina, USA. Any article on the history of economic thought published in 2000 is eligible. For detailed information about the competition, including past winners, see the Society's homepage (www.eh.net/HE/HisEcSoc/). We ask that nominations be limited to one per nominator. Self-nominations are welcome. To submit a nomination, please send 3 copies of the paper to Jeffrey Young, Department of Economics, St. Lawrence University, Canton, NY 13617, USA. Nominations must be received no later than March 1, 2001.

Joseph Dorfman Best Dissertation Award: The History of Economics Society is accepting submissions for its annual Joseph Dorfman Best Dissertation Award for dissertations in the history of economic thought. In memory of Joseph Dorfman, historian of economic thought and Distinguished Fellow of the History of Economics Society, his family has created an endowment, the income from which funds this award. The deadline for submissions is December 31, 2000 for dissertations completed during the year prior to August 31, 2000. The Chair of the 2000–2001 dissertation award committee is Jim Wible. Submissions should be sent to Professor Jim Wible, Department of Economics, McConnell Hall, University of New Hampshire, Durham, NH 03824 USA.