

ROYAL HISTORICAL SOCIETY CAMDEN FIFTH SERIES

British Envoys to Germany, 1816–1866 Volume 1: 1816–1829

This edition consists of official reports sent by British envoys in Germany to the Foreign Office in London. The diversity and number of missions within the German Confederation offers the reader an opportunity for a pluralistic perception of German affairs by several British diplomats. The selection presents their main attitudes to the political, economic, cultural, military, and social situation in the German states. All despatches relevant to this first volume which covers the period 1816–1829 have been transcribed from the original for the first time.

SABINE FREITAG is a Research Fellow of the German Historical Institute in London. She is the author of Friedrich Hecker. Biographie eines Republikaners (1998) and editor of Die Achtundvierziger. Lebensbilder aus der Revolution 1848/49 (1998) and 'Handbook on the History of European Banks' (1995).

PETER WENDE is Director of the German Historical Institute in London. He has written on 19th century German and English history.
