POLICY

The Law & Society Review welcomes articles and research notes by lawyers, social scientists, and other scholars that bear on the relationship between society and the legal process. The Review is published by the Law and Society Association, an international group drawn primarily from the legal and social science professions, whose purpose is the stimulation and support of research and teaching on the cultural, economic, political, psychological, and social aspects of law and legal systems.

1990 MEMBERSHIPS

Members of the Law and Society Association receive the Review as a perquisite of membership. Dues in the Association are:

Student (nonvoting)	$15.00	Contributing	$ 75.00
Regular	$50.00	Sustaining	$150.00

Contributions to the Law and Society Association are tax exempt.

MANUSCRIPTS

All manuscripts and editorial correspondence should be sent to:

Shari Diamond, Editor
Law & Society Review
Department of Psychology (M/C 285)
University of Illinois—Chicago
Box 4348
Chicago, IL 60680

Manuscripts should be submitted in quadruplicate. Text, including footnotes and references, should be double spaced with ample (1¼ inch) margins. Footnotes, references, tables, and graphs should follow the main body of the text. Citations that make the author's identity obvious should, to the extent feasible, be deleted from three of the four copies in order to facilitate anonymous reviewing. Each manuscript should contain a short (100-word) abstract, and one biographical description of the author(s) should be submitted. A style sheet is available on request. Manuscripts cannot be returned to authors. Because of the commitment we ask of our outside referees, the Review cannot consider for publication manuscripts being considered by other journals, and a submission to the Review carries with it the implicit promise that the manuscript will not be submitted elsewhere so long as it is under consideration by the Review.
