

Society for the Promotion of Roman Studies

ANNUAL SUBSCRIPTION—THREE POUNDS

The Society's scope embraces the history, art, archaeology and literature of Rome, Italy and the Roman Empire, down to about A.D. 700. Medieval and Renaissance Italy have been left to other bodies already engaged on these subjects.

THE JOURNAL OF ROMAN STUDIES

The Journal of Roman Studies is published by the Society in half-yearly parts—for the present in one annual volume—and is issued gratuitously and post free to all subscribing members. The Journal is sold to non-subscribers at the rate of £4 a volume.

An arrangement has been effected between the Roman Society, the Hellenic Society and the Classical Association by which the Journals of the three bodies will be conducted in harmony.

THE JOINT LIBRARY AND COLLECTIONS

The Hellenic and Roman Societies maintain a joint library of some 36,000 books on Greek and Roman art, archaeology, history, literature and language, and a collection of some 15,000 lantern slides, which are open to members of the Societies. They are housed at 31–34 Gordon Square in juxtaposition with the Institute of Classical Studies of London University, which has taken over all the reference books (about 3,000) formerly belonging to the Societies; these can be consulted but not borrowed.

The library is open from 9.30 a.m. to 6 p.m. on Mondays to Fridays; Saturdays, 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Members of the Roman Society are entitled in respect of their membership to borrow three books at a time, and to borrow lantern slides at a charge of 4d. each. Both books and slides can be sent by post. Copies of the Joint Library Catalogue and the Slide Catalogue can be borrowed.

All communications respecting books and lantern slides should be made to the Librarian or Keeper of Lantern Slides, at 31–34 Gordon Square, London, W.C. 1.

MEETINGS

Meetings for the reading and discussion of papers are held at Gordon Square and others are arranged at various places in the country. A programme is circulated in the autumn.

MEMBERSHIP AND SUBSCRIPTIONS

The Society consists of life members, annual members, student-associates and subscribing libraries and institutions. The life-membership composition for persons over sixty years of age is fifteen pounds. The annual subscription for members is three pounds, for student-associates one pound.

Those who are desirous of joining the Society are invited to communicate with the Secretary at 31–34 Gordon Square, London, W.C. 1. to whom also all subscriptions should be sent.
