

We have discovered America, but we're just beginning to explore it.

What is the American experience? What went into it? When and why? With what result?

These are questions of increasing interest and centrality to scholars, students and thoughtful readers.

With that in mind, we at Johnson Reprint Corporation have been formulating a series in American Studies.

The concept of "American Studies" is broadly construed—as well it might, considering the kaleidoscopic nature of the subject. We include many of those works which have influenced, as well as those which have described, defined or simply expressed the American experience.

Our purpose being to provide an inter-disciplinary perspective, above and yet including both the humanities and the social sciences.

Now, in its 4th year—and as we add 50 new titles—the series is beginning to acquire an interesting depth and inclusiveness. We would be very happy to send you a catalogue.

Political and Social Thought in America 1870-1970

edited by
EDMUND IONS

In this book the main themes and ideas in American political thought over the last hundred years are illustrated in a variety of documents covering a wide political spectrum: from extreme left to extreme right. In his introduction, the editor shows that many of the conflicting elements of American political and social thought can be reconciled within a general theoretical framework.

BRITISH ASSOCIATION FOR AMERICAN STUDIES

This Association was founded in 1955 to promote the study of the United States within the United Kingdom. It welcomes applications for membership from people interested in the history, society, government and politics, economics, geography, literature and thought of the United States. It publishes a Newsletter twice yearly, holds an Annual Conference, and provides other services for its members from time to time. Enquiries concerning current subscription rates and applications for membership should be addressed to the Secretary, Dr Charlotte Erickson, London School of Economics, Houghton Street, Aldwych, London, WC2A 2AE.

NOTES FOR CONTRIBUTORS

1. All contributions and editorial correspondence should be sent to: The Editor, Journal of American Studies, Department of American Studies, The University, Manchester M13 9PL, England.
2. Articles should generally contain about 5000 words. Longer or shorter articles, or articles in two or more parts, may be accepted by arrangement with the Editor.
3. Submission of an article is taken to imply that it has not previously been published, or is not being considered for publication elsewhere.
4. Contributions should be clearly typed in double spacing, preferably on A4 paper, with a wide left-hand margin. Diagrams and maps may be included by arrangement with the Editor.
5. Footnotes should be used sparingly: in general, to give sources of direct quotations, references to main authorities on disputable questions, and evidence relied on for a new or unusual conclusion. They should be numbered in one sequence throughout the article, and should preferably be typed in double spacing at the end of the article.
6. Contributors should keep one copy of the typescript for correcting proofs.
7. Notes intended for the Editor or printer should be on a separate sheet.
8. First proofs may be read and corrected by contributors provided that they can give the Editor an address through which they can be reached without delay and can guarantee to return the corrected proofs to the Editor, by airmail where necessary, within ten days of receiving them.
9. Correction should be kept to an absolute minimum. It should be confined to errors of the typist or printer unless the Editor authorizes otherwise.
10. Contributors of articles and review articles receive 25 free separates. Extra copies may be ordered according to the scale of charges.
11. Contributors need not be members of the British Association for American Studies. Unsolicited typescripts can only be returned to overseas contributors who send International Reply Coupons (not postage stamps).
12. Contributors of accepted articles will be asked to assign their copyrights, on certain conditions, to Cambridge University Press, to help protect their material, particularly in the U.S.A.
