Manuscripts and correspondence about them should be sent to the editors. All manuscript submissions must conform to the following conventions:

- Submit three copies, typed double-spaced, in a 12 point—or 10 characters per inch—font size. The text should not be longer than 25 pages.
- Maps, tables, charts and other illustrations must be camera-ready.
- Citations within the text should follow the author-date standard described in chapter 16 of the 14th edition of A Manual of Style (University of Chicago Press, 1993).
- Complete bibliographic references to the citations should be provided at the end of the essay in a section entitled "References." The standard is page 648 of the aforementioned A Manual of Style.
- "Notes" should follow the References. They should be formatted according to the conventions of A Manual of Style, sections 15.35–15.40.
- Manuscripts will be sent to external peer reviewers; include a removable cover page giving essay title, author name and mailing address, fax number and e-mail address, if available; title should be repeated on the first page of text, but the author's name should appear only on the cover page.
- Include an abstract of not more than 200 words.
- Include a signed statement that the essay has not been published and is not currently under consideration by other journals. The ASR will only consider unpublished manuscripts.
