International Investment Law
Reconciling Policy and Principle
Surya P Subedi New 2nd Ed

This book offers an up-to-date, scholarly overview of the law of foreign investment, incorporating a thorough and succinct analysis of the principles and standards of treatment available to foreign investors in international law. It is authoritative and multi-layered, offering an analysis of the key issues and an insightful assessment of recent trends in the case-law, from both developed and developing country perspectives. Since the first edition was published a number of land-mark decisions have been produced by various international investment tribunals, calling for an update in what is a fast-growing and rapidly changing investment environment.

Surya P Subedi, OBE, DPhil, FRSA, is Professor of International Law, University of Leeds, and a Barrister at Tanfield Chambers in London.

The Irish Yearbook of International Law Volumes 4-5, 2009-10
Edited by Fiona de Londras and Slobhán Mullally

The Irish Yearbook of International Law is intended to stimulate further research into Ireland's practice in international affairs and foreign policy, filling gaps in existing legal scholarship and assisting in the dissemination of Irish thinking and practice on matters of international law. On an annual basis, the Yearbook presents peer-reviewed articles and book reviews on general issues of international law. Designated chapters provide reports on international law developments in Ireland, Irish practice in international fora and the European Union, and the practice of joint North-South implementation bodies in Ireland. In addition, the Yearbook reproduces documents that reflect Irish practice on contemporary issues of international law.

Fiona de Londras is a Lecturer at the School of Law, University College Dublin. Slobhán Mullally is Professor of Law at University College Cork.

May 2012 Hbk 9781849464208 £75 / US$150

The Settlement of International Disputes
Basic Documents
Compiled by Christian Tams and Antonios Tzanakopoulos

This collection of documents brings together a large number of primary sources on the peaceful settlement of disputes in a usable and affordable format. The documents included reflect the diverse techniques of international dispute settlement, as recognised in Articles 2(3) and 33 of the UN Charter, such as negotiation, mediation, arbitration and adjudication. It is aimed at teachers, students and practitioners of international law and related disciplines. Designed as a classroom and exam companion, it is ideally suited as a companion volume for undergraduate and postgraduate courses.

Christian J Tams is Professor of International Law at the University of Glasgow. Antonios Tzanakopoulos is Lecturer in International Law at University College London and the University of Glasgow.

Sept 2012 Pbk 9781849463034 £45 / US$90

International and European Criminal Law
Helmut Satzger

This work highlights the international aspects of criminal law so far ingrained in national law. The book is designed to give a first and solid introduction to international criminal law, using numerous examples and references to schemas and charts. It also caters for the needs of students and academics in this field.

Helmut Satzger is Professor of German, European and International Criminal Law at Munich University.

Aug 2012 Hbk 9781849460804 £85 / US$170

The Art of Justice
The Judge's Perspective
Ruth Herz

This book presents a unique and intriguing collection of drawings of courtroom scenes. Entering the courtroom wearing his robe Judge Pierre Cavellat literally had a secret up his sleeve. Hidden in it were pens and pencils, which he used to sketch the scenes he observed from his bench during a trial. The resulting vivid and uncensored impressions give an unprecedented insight into how a judge perceives his profession and the institution of justice as a whole. The author, a judge herself, interprets the images through the lens of her own judicial experience.

Ruth Herz is a former judge at the Court of Cologne. She is currently a visiting professor at Birkbeck College, University of London.
