CONFERENCES etc.

1. Autumn Day Conference. The Catholic Record Society has arranged a Day Conference on Saturday 19 November 1988 at the Westminster Cathedral Conference Centre from 10 a.m. to 4.30 p.m.

Details are provided on the booking form enclosed with this issue of Recusant History.

2. Oxford Conference, 1989. The 32nd annual conference of the Catholic Record Society will take place at Plater College, Oxford from Monday 24th to Thursday 27th July 1989. The conference, embodying lectures, short communications and work-in-progress sessions, is of particular interest to those concerned with English Catholic History since the Reformation, but also to anyone involved with religious, cultural and local community history. The conference is open to non-members of the Catholic Record Society, and booking forms and further particulars are available from the Conference Secretary:

Dr Judith F. Champ, 23 Bexley Court, Parkside Road, Reading RG3 2DY. Tel. 0734 583002

Please send a stamped addressed envelope.

3. Conference Bursaries. The Council of the Catholic Record Society offers five conference bursaries to postgraduate students working on research relevant to Post-Reformation English Catholic History. The value of the bursaries will be equivalent to half the cost of attending the conference. Recipients of bursaries will be expected to offer a short communication (15-20 minutes) on the subject of their research. Applications are invited from full- or part-time students registered for higher degrees in any recognised institution, British or overseas. Details from Dr. Judith F. Champ (address as in item 2, above).

4. The Catholic Record Society Prize. The Catholic Record Society offers an annual Prize for a paper on some aspect of Post-Reformation Catholic History in the British Isles. The Prize, designed to encourage new writing in this field, consists of a cash award (at present sixty pounds) plus free attendance at the Society's annual Conference, at which the winning paper will be read. The paper should be between six and eight thousand words in length and must be a piece of original research, not previously published. At the discretion of the editorial committee papers submitted for the Prize may be published in the Catholic Record Society's journal, Recusant History. The winning entry will be selected by a panel appointed by the Council of the Catholic Record Society, whose decision will be final. The Society reserves the right not to award the Prize in any one year. The closing date for consideration of contributions is 30th September each year; they should be submitted to the Honorary Secretary, Miss R. Rendel, c/o 114 Mount Street, London, WIX 6AH.
