Policy: The JOURNAL OF INTERAMERICAN STUDIES AND WORLD AFFAIRS will publish articles dealing primarily with contemporary U.S.-Latin American relations, U.S. foreign policy towards Latin America, relations between Latin American nations, as well as with their relations with the rest of the world. Articles will also be considered that deal with Latin American internal affairs when such have clear implications for foreign policy. In addition, the editors will welcome articles from both scholars and public figures, from all parts of the world, that deal with the political, economic, cultural and social aspects of Latin American interrelationships on a worldwide basis.

All articles submitted to the JOURNAL will be subject to review by qualified referees before being accepted for publication.

Manuscripts should be submitted in duplicate to: Editor, JOURNAL OF INTERAMERICAN STUDIES AND WORLD AFFAIRS, P.O. Box 248134, University of Miami, Coral Gables, FL 33124. Manuscripts should be typewritten, double spaced, with footnotes, references, tables, and charts on separate pages and should follow the current JOURNAL style. Tables and charts should be of camera-ready quality. A brief biographical paragraph describing the author's current affiliation and recent publications (and/or research interests) should accompany the manuscript. Correspondence regarding book reviews should be directed to the Book Review Editor at the above address.

The Ideology of the Sandinistas and the Nicaraguan Revolution

BY DAVID NOLAN

"David Nolan's work is a major contribution to the understanding of the ideology behind the Nicaraguan political system. It will be widely read by all those with an interest in Central American politics."

Anthony C.E. Quainton
U.S. Ambassador to Nicaragua
May, 1984

"To all Members of Congress:
The enclosed book has a direct relationship to the national security interests of this nation. . . .
Provides indispensable documentation. . . ."
