Contributions are welcome. Manuscripts should be typed on one side of the sheet only, double-spaced, with ample margins for editorial marking. Two paper copies should be submitted along with a computer disk (WordPerfect or Microsoft Word are preferred). Authors are advised to incorporate footnote material into the text whenever possible. Notes should be numbered consecutively through the article and listed on a separate sheet at the end of the article. Manuscripts should be consistent with the recommendations of The Chicago Manual of Style (University of Chicago Press, 14th edition). All editorial correspondence should be sent to the editors, Cyril Daddieh (Political Science Department, 301 Howley Hall, Providence College, Providence, RI 02921; daddieh@providence.edu) and Jo Ellen Fair (African Studies Program, 205 Ingraham Hall, University of Wisconsin-Madison, 1155 Observatory Drive, Madison, WI 53706; jefair@facstaff.wisc.edu). The editors are responsible for the final selection of the content of African Issues and reserve the right to reject any material deemed inappropriate for publication. Responsibility for the copyediting of the material is also the authors.

NOTICE TO MEMBERS: The postal system does not forward periodicals. We must receive written notification from you at least five weeks in advance of any change in your mailing address to ensure uninterrupted delivery of ASA materials. Failure to notify us of your correct mailing address will result in suspension of your membership until we receive such notification. We can make address changes only when current dues are paid. Domestic claims for nonreceipt of issues must be made within six months of publication (overseas claims, within one year). Copies of African Issues damaged in the mail will be replaced without charge.
