THE NEW TESTAMENT
A Historical Introduction to the Early Christian Writings
Bart D. Ehrman

"This welcome new textbook takes a refreshing, self-consciously historical approach to the New Testament and the origins of Christianity. College teachers who have been seeking a sensible, up-to-date, textbook on the New Testament and Christian origins should rejoice in the publication of this one." —Ross S. Kraemer, Department of Religious Studies, University of Pennsylvania

This lucid introduction approaches the New Testament from a consistently historical and comparative perspective, emphasizing the rich diversity of the earliest Christian literature. Rather than shying away from the critical problems presented by these books, Ehrman addresses the historical and literary challenges they pose and shows why scholars continue to argue over such significant issues as how the books of the New Testament came into being, who produced them, what they mean, how they relate to contemporary Christian and non-Christian literature, and how they came to be collected into a canon of Scripture.

THE NEW TESTAMENT AND OTHER EARLY CHRISTIAN WRITINGS
A Reader
Bart D. Ehrman

"A superb collection of texts for the study of the New Testament and Early Christianity. It will fill a long-felt need." —Joseph B. Tyson, Southern Methodist University

This reader presents, for the first time in one volume, every Christian writing known to have been produced during the first hundred years of the church (30–130 C.E.). In addition to the New Testament itself, it includes other early non-canonical Gospels, Acts, Epistles, and Apocalypses, as well as additional important writings, such as those of the Apostolic Fathers. Each text is provided in an up-to-date and readable translation (including the NRSV for the New Testament), and introduced with a succinct and incisive discussion of its author, date of composition, and overarching themes.

AFTER THE NEW TESTAMENT
A Reader in Early Christianity
Edited by Bart D. Ehrman

This unique reader's concise and informative introductions and clear and up-to-date English translations make it ideal for courses on the New Testament, Christian Origins, Early Church History, or Late Antiquity, as well as for anyone—student, teacher, pastor, layperson—interested in the gamut of early Christian literature from the period after the New Testament up to the writings of the so-called father of church history, Eusebius.

FIRST AND SECOND THESSALONIANS

Interpretation

Beverly Roberts Gaventa

Cloth $22.00

These two epistles are a study in contrasts. How do we account for similarities in the structure and language of these letters, and the differences in content and tone? Gaventa discusses these issues, identifying what makes each of the texts important for the life of the church today.

ACTS

Westminster Bible Companion

Paul W. Walaskay

Paper $20.00

The author discusses Luke's description of the early church, its leadership, and its struggles as a people of God amid competing religious claims. He helps the reader understand Luke and his contemporaries and examines the first-century church's situation in light of today's issues.

WHERE CHRISTOLOGY BEGAN

Essays on Philippians 2

Ralph P. Martin and Brian J. Dodd, eds.

Paper $25.00

Internationally recognized scholars search for insights into the earliest expressions of Christological belief embodied in Philippians 2:5–11. Contributors include Richard J. Bauckham, Colin Brown, Brian J. Dodd, James D. G. Dunn, Stephen Fowl, Gerald F. Hawthorne, L. D. Hurst, Larry J. Kreitzer, Ralph P. Martin, and Robert Morgan.

JESUS CHRIST

The Message of the Gospels, The Hope of the Church

Burton H. Throckmorton, Jr.

Paper $13.00

In response to recent books that claim to reveal "the real Jesus," the author discusses the significance of Jesus Christ. He offers an understanding of the identity of Jesus as portrayed in the Gospels and constructs an account of recent trends in New Testament studies.

SUBMISSIONS

Articles submitted for publication should be sent to The Editor, Dr C. M. Tuckett, New Testament Studies, Theology Faculty Centre, 41 St Giles, Oxford OX1 3LW, UK. The Editor can also be contacted via email at christopher.tuckett@theology.oxford.ac.uk.

The author should certify that the article is not being submitted simultaneously to some other journal and explain to the editor the extent of any overlap with books or articles the author has published or is about to publish. Articles which simply reproduce material that has appeared, or is due to appear, elsewhere in the same or a different language should not be submitted to this journal.

Upon acceptance of a paper, the author will be asked to assign copyright (on certain conditions) to Cambridge University Press.

Contributors are responsible for obtaining permission to reproduce any material which they do not hold copyright and for ensuring that the appropriate acknowledgements are included in their manuscript.

MANUSCRIPT PREPARATION

New Testament Studies accepts contributions in English, French and German. All articles submitted for publication in this journal are expected to conform to the requirements of the full instructions for contributors which can be found in NTS 38 (1992) 157–160 and on the www at <http://www.cup.cam.ac.uk/journals/jnlscat/nts/nts.html>. Typescripts should not normally be longer than 8,500 words including footnotes. The typescript of both text and footnotes should be double spaced. Typescripts which exceed this limit cannot be considered for publication. Two copies of a typescript should be submitted to the editor. Contributors are also asked to supply an abstract of their article, not exceeding 100 words in length. Short Studies may be supplied without an abstract.

When an article has been accepted for publication, the author is strongly encouraged to send a copy of the final version on computer disk (Macintosh or PC) together with the hard copy typescript, giving details of the wordprocessing software used (Microsoft Word or Word Perfect). However, the publisher reserves the right to typeset material by conventional means if an author's disk proves unsatisfactory.

PROOFS

Typographical or factual errors only may be changed at proof stage. The publisher reserves the right to charge authors for correction of non-typographical errors.

OFFPRINTS

Each article contributor will receive a copy of the issue. 25 offprints of each article and review article will be supplied free to the first named author. Extra copies may be purchased from the publisher if ordered at proof stage.

MONOGRAPH SERIES

In view of the increasing number of typescripts which are being received for possible publication, those who wish to submit work are asked not to do so without first consulting the Editor, Prof. R. J. Bauckham, St Mary's College, St Andrews, Fife KY16 9JU, UK, who will be glad to advise about format, length and possible date of publication if the work can be accepted.
