

A “powerful and disturbing”
answer to the question:
WHY IS THERE NO
PEACE BETWEEN PALESTINE AND ISRAEL?

————— WINNER —————
2014 Lionel Trilling Book Award
2013 MEMO Palestine Book Award

“Failure to achieve an independent Palestine should not surprise us in the least . . . Brokers of Deceit is a powerful and revealing indictment of America’s ignoble role in this continuing tragedy.”

—STEPHEN WALT, Journal of Palestine Studies

“For those of us who believe that a two-state solution is the path to justice and peace for Israel and Palestine, Rashid Khalidi’s trenchant analysis is powerful and disturbing.”

—JEFFREY D. SACHS, author of The End of Poverty

“American presidents from Truman to Obama have sided with Israel at almost every turn. . . . As Brokers of Deceit makes clear, the United States richly deserves to be called ‘Israel’s lawyer.’”

—JOHN J. MEARSHEIMER, coauthor of The Israel Lobby

“Rashid Khalidi mounts a frontal attack on the myths and misconceptions that have come to surround America’s role in the so-called ‘peace process,’ which is all process and no peace.”

—AVI SHLAIM, author of The Iron Wall

—SEYMOUR M. HERSH, The New Yorker

DESCRIPTION

The Middle East Studies Association (MESA) is a private, nonprofit, nonpolitical learned society that brings together scholars, educators, and those interested in the study of the region from all over the world. From its inception in 1966 with fifty founding members, MESA has increased its membership to more than 2,700 and now serves as an umbrella organization for more than sixty institutional members and thirty-seven affiliated organizations. The association is a constituent society of the American Council of Learned Societies and the National Council of Area Studies Associations, and a member of the National Humanities Alliance. As part of its goal to advance learning, facilitate communication, and promote cooperation, MESA sponsors an annual meeting that is a leading international forum for scholarship, intellectual exchange and pedagogical innovation. It is responsible for the International Journal of Middle East Studies, the premiere journal on the region, and the Review of Middle East Studies. An awards program recognizes scholarly achievement, service to the profession, and exemplary students. MESA is governed by an eight-member Board of Directors elected by the membership.

MESA is a nonprofit corporation with tax exempt status. Contributions to the Association are deductible under both U.S. Federal and British income tax regulations.

MISSION STATEMENT

The Middle East Studies Association (MESA) is a nonpolitical association that fosters the study of the Middle East, promotes high standards of scholarship and teaching, and encourages public understanding of the region and its peoples through programs, publications, and services that enhance education, further intellectual exchange, recognize professional distinction, and defend academic freedom.
