Revue Canadienne de Comptes rendus en Philosophie

Editor:

University of Alberta

Editeur associé:

J.N. Kaufmann
Université du Québec à Trois-Rivières

A bi-lingual journal for publications in academic philosophy and for theoretical work in other fields of interest to philosophers.

Academics in the humanities and social sciences routinely complain that there is no rapid dissemination of informed and informative opinion concerning publications in their fields. This is doubly unfortunate when more books than ever before are being published. Philosophers in particular need to be informed not only of work that is strictly philosophical but also of work which is primarily theoretical in nature in such areas as law, psychology, sociology, literary criticism, physics, medicine, linguistics and classical studies. C.P.R./R.C.C.P. is the first journal based in North America to aim systematically to meet that need. (10 issues per volume/year)

Institutions: Cdn$68.00 (Canadian); US$64.00/Cdn$78.00 (non-Canadian)

Individuals: Cdn$34.00 (Canadian); US$32.00/Cdn$44.00 (non-Canadian)

Students: Cdn$22.00 (Canadian); US$18.00/Cdn$30.00 (non-Canadian)

The Journal of the British Society of Aesthetics

One of the leading organs for philosophical discussion on the international scene, providing a medium for study of the philosophy of art and the principles of aesthetic appreciation and judgement. Experience of both fine and applied art is examined from the point of view of the psychologist, the sociologist, the historian, the teacher and the general critic. By bringing together discussions of general philosophical aesthetics and articles on the principles of appraisal which apply in the various arts severally, the journal works towards a better understanding of the analogies and differences between them. Established 1960.
