Bertolt Brecht

Chaos, According to Plan

JOHN FUEGI

This is the first full-length study in any language of Bertolt Brecht's day-by-day work as a theatre director. Professor Fuegi tells how this magnetic and volatile character worked and reacted with actors in rehearsal, creating the tensions and contradictions from which his best productions emerged.

Directors in Perspective

The World of Harlequin

A Critical Study of the Commedia dell'Arte

ALLARDYCE NICOLL

In this classic study of the Commedia dell'Arte, printed in several editions and languages since its first publication in 1963, Allardyce Nicoll shows how and why the figure of Harlequin came to predominate among recognised stage types and traces the history and influence of the Commedia.

THEATRE RESEARCH / RECHERCHES THEATRALES

The International Federation published the journal Theatre Research/Recherches Théâtrales from 1959 to 1975 when it was succeeded by Theatre Research International. During these years many important articles of original research were published covering the whole field of theatre history from the earliest times, and particularly Shakespeare and the Elizabethan period, to more recent figures such as Strindberg, Craig and Beckett. There have been special issues on the themes of Opera, the Playwright as Director, and Reinhardt; a check-list of world theatre on records; and reports on International Conferences and Symposia of the I.F.T.R.

In all 14 volumes were published in 36 issues including a complete index. Most back issues are still available.

University and institutional libraries, and especially those who have subscribed to the new journal Theatre Research International, are recommended to take this opportunity of completing their holding of the earlier issues of this publication, while copies last.

Price: per issue £2 ($3); per volume £4 ($6) plus postage

A few complete runs of the 14 volumes (with two issues in facsimile) are available at £50 ($75). Postage extra.
