THE TREASURE CHEST OF THE EARLY CHRISTIANS

Faith, Care, and Community from the Apostolic Age to Constantine the Great

David Batson

Plumbing the historical sources that illumine the development of Christian corporate and social life from its earliest days through the fourth century, David Batson chronicles the church's crucial role as caretaker of the destitute and deprived — a role unique in late antiquity.

PHILO AND PAUL AMONG THE SOPHISTS

Alexandrian and Corinthian Responses to a Julio-Claudian Movement

SECOND EDITION

Bruce W. Winter

Foreword by G. W. Bowersock

Now available in affordable paperback, this second edition has been substantially revised and includes a new foreword.

"A remarkable and valuable study. . . . Winter's sketch of first-century sophistry gives us a clearer picture of Paul's rhetorically adept opponents and provides further important historical context for the growing body of rhetorical studies of Paul's letters."

PIUS XII AND THE HOLOCAUST

Understanding the Controversy

José M. Sánchez

"The best introduction to one of the most intriguing and controversial topics of the 20th century. . . . This is a book that everyone interested in the general history of the twentieth century, especially European, Jewish, or Vatican history, should read.

Sánchez utilizes the most up-to-date literature on the subject, raises the pertinent questions, and presents the varying interpretations in a clear, understandable fashion. . . ."—Prof. Stewart A. Stehlin, New York Univ.

"[A] succinct and lucid study. . . . Sánchez guides the reader through a dense thicket of claims and counter-claims, myths and counter-myths without losing sight of the central issues. . . . [A] valuable survey."—

Awards of the American Society of Church History:

The Frank S. and Elizabeth D. Brewer Prize, offered annually, is a subvention fund of $1,000 to assist a press in publishing a book-length manuscript in church history. The prize is limited to first books. The monetary grant will be made upon receipt of a commitment in writing from a publisher accepting the manuscript. Entries in their final form must be received by 1 November.

The Albert C. Outler Prize is an award in the amount of $1,000 to the author of the best book published in the two previous calendar years in ecumenical church history. "Ecumenical" is to be construed as concerned chiefly with problems of Christian unity and disunity (doctrinal, cultural, institutional) or with interactions between Christianity and other religious movements in any historical period. Authors of eligible books or any member of the Society may nominate titles for consideration; authors should submit a copy of the book. Nominations must be received by 1 March in even-numbered years.

The Philip Schaff Prize is an award in the amount of $1,000 to the author of the best book published in the two previous calendar years, originating in the North American scholarly community and presenting original research on any period in the history of Christianity. Authors of eligible books or any member of the Society may nominate titles for consideration; authors should submit a copy of the book. Nominations must be received by 1 March in odd-numbered years.

The Jane Dempsey Douglass Prize is an annual award in the amount of $250 for the author of the best essay published during the previous calendar year on any aspect of the role of women in the history of Christianity. Authors of eligible articles and any member of the Society may nominate titles for consideration. Nominations, accompanied if possible by a copy of the article, must be received by 1 August.

The Sidney E. Mead Prize, offered annually, is an award in the amount of $250 for the author of the best unpublished essay in any field of church history written by a doctoral candidate or recent graduate whose manuscript stems directly from doctoral research. The manuscript will be published in Church History. Entries of no more than twenty-five double-spaced pages, including double-spaced endnotes, must be submitted by 1 July.

A work may be submitted for only one ASCH competition. For more information, or to nominate a book or submit a manuscript, write to the American Society of Church History, P.O. Box 8517, Red Bank, NJ 07701.

Church History: Studies in Christianity and Culture is published four times per year (March, June, September, and December) by the American Society of Church History. Membership dues for individuals are $40 per year for regular membership, $20 per year for retired persons who previously held regular membership for at least five years; and free for two years for graduate students with the approval of a professor who is a member of the Society (after two years, graduate students pay $20 annually until graduation). Institutional subscriptions are $60 per year. Foreign postage is an additional $15 per year. Single issues are $20. Please make remittances payable to "American Society of Church History."

Office of the executive secretary: American Society of Church History, P.O. Box 8517, Red Bank, NJ 07701-8517.

Subscription applications, renewals, changes of address, claims for missing numbers, orders for single copies of current or back issues, and requests for permission to quote should be sent to the executive secretary. Claims for missing numbers will be honored without charge if made within two months of the regular month of publication.

Microfilm reproductions of The American Society of Church History Papers, series I and II, and of Church History, volumes I–17 (1932–48), are available from the ATLA Preservation Board. Orders for these reproductions as well as inquiries about microfilm portions and photocopies should be sent to 1118 East 54th Place, Chicago, IL 60615.

Microfilm reproductions of Church History starting with volume 18 (1949) are available to subscribers and members of the Society from University Microfilms, 300 North Zeeb Road, Ann Arbor, MI 48106.

Church History is indexed in the Expanded Academic Index (Infotrac), American History and Life, Arts and Humanities Search, Web of Science, Historical Abstracts, Religious Periodicals, and Academic Search Elite. This periodical is also indexed in the ATLA Religion Index One, published by the American Theological Library Association, 250 S. Wacker Dr., 16th Fl., Chicago, IL 60606; (888) 665-ATLA; atla@atla.com; <http://www.atla.com/>.

Editorial office: Church History, The Divinity School, Duke University, Box 90975, Durham, NC 27708-0975; (919) 660-3470; fax (919) 660-3473; church-history@duke.edu.

Send manuscripts, books for review, and requests about advertising to the editorial office. Manuscripts should run 6,000–11,000 words (or approximately 20–35 pages), not including endnotes, and should be printed double-spaced in 11- or 12-point font; endnotes must be printed double-spaced on separate pages following the text. The editors request (1) three copies of the manuscript (in order to protect the author's anonymity during the review process, the author's name should appear only on the title page of the essay); (2) three copies of a 200-word abstract (if Church History publishes the essay, the abstract may be printed above the first line of the text of the article and/or it may be included on the Church History web page at www.churchhistory.org); (3) a 3½-inch diskette containing the manuscript and abstract (instead of sending a diskette, you may submit your manuscript and abstract by electronic mail). Further guidelines are available on request.

Church History is printed by the Science Press division of Cadmus Professional Communications, Ephrata, Pennsylvania. Periodicals postage paid at Red Bank, New Jersey and additional mailing offices. Postmaster: Send address changes to American Society of Church History, P.O. Box 8517, Red Bank, NJ 07701.
