

ARLIS 1986 CONFERENCE, WENTWORTH COLLEGE UNIVERSITY OF YORK

THURSDAY 3rd TO SUNDAY 6th APRIL

'Co-operation in Art, Architecture and Design Libraries'

The conference is in the early stages of planning. We hope to cover international, national and local co-operation between art libraries of all types – public, academic, museum and gallery. Suggestions for papers include co-operative cataloguing systems; the role of the National Art Library; local co-operation in the city of Sheffield; training and what ARLIS U.K. and Eire might do to foster co-operation between art libraries.

Possibilities for visits are numerous. We will be giving options for most of the following: York Minster Library; Impressions Gallery; Institute of Advanced Architectural Studies Library, King's Manor; Castle Museum; Jorvik Centre; York City Art Gallery; Castle Howard and its Library and the British Library Lending Division.

Accommodation will be in student bedrooms and the estimated cost of £85 will include all meals.

Any overseas visitors would be made most welcome.
