IN RETREAT WITH THE SACRED HEART

By REV. F. CHARMOT, S.J.

A unique book of meditations in the format of verse, strophe and dialogue, patterned somewhat after the manner of the psalms in order to facilitate reflection. The meditations are designed either to accompany a preached retreat, or to supplement a retreat followed in a manual.

THE LITANY OF THE SACRED HEART

By REV. A. BISKUPEK, S.V.D.

This Litany can truly be called a concise summary of all that the Church teaches about the Person and work of Christ. And in this work Father Biskupek probes the meaning of various invocations contained in the Litany, uncovering their full significance and leading the reader to a more profound knowledge of our Lord.

THE IRISH DOMINICANS

by Dr D. D. C. Pochin Mould

pp. 300; 83 plates; 12 sketches; bound Balacuir, 3 colour paper cover of painting of Sligo Abbey. price 21s.

Dr D. D. C. Pochin Mould for this, as for her other books, travelled indefatigably to the varied scenes of Irish Dominican labour from 1224 to 1957. Thus absorbing the spirit as well as picturing the events of the Order's apostolate for over seven centuries, she gathers the threads of its history told in ruins, traditions, chronicles and archives, and with expert pen weaves them into the whole which makes fascinating reading, and presents for the first time an entire new chapter of the history of Catholic Ireland in its triumphs, tribulations and resurgence.

MEISTER ECKEHART SPEAKS

Here is a short introduction to, and anthology of, the famous thirteenth-century Dominican mystic, Meister Eckehart. Texts from his writings deal with many aspects of the spiritual life and the editor presents them together with an introductory article not only on Eckehart's outward life, but his spiritual development also. 6s.

THE LETTERS OF HENRY SUSO

The friendship which existed between Henry Suso, the fourteenth-century Dominican friar, and his spiritual daughter, Elspeth Stigel, is one of the most fascinating and fruitful in the story of the mystics. We owe our knowledge of the whole of his mystical teaching to the record of letters and conversations between the two. Elspeth collected and copied twenty-seven letters which Suso sent to her and others of his spiritual daughters, and which form her Book of Letters on which this translation is based. 4s. 6d.

TREATISE ON THE SPIRITUAL LIFE

St Vincent Ferrer

The essential characteristic of this Treatise is that it takes hold of the spiritual life from its most practical aspect and makes a vivid presentation of the virtues. It is full of that strong virile piety which unfortunately is becoming only too rare today. We are glad therefore to present this new translation of a great work by a great Saint, to which is added the commentary of Mother Julienne Morelle, O.P. 12s. 6d.
