

PENGUIN AFRICAN WRITERS

DAMBUDZO MARECHERA
BLACK SUNLIGHT

Once banned in the author's native Zimbabwe, this stylistically inventive novel about anarchists struggling against a shadowy fascist-capitalist organization exposes African nationalist and ethnic ideology as props for dictatorship.

Penguin Global • 144 pp. • 978-0-14-302620-4 • $17.95

VÉRONIQUE TADJO
AS THE CROW FLIES

In a lyrical exploration of the human heart, Tadjo weaves a rich tapestry of characters—nameless, faceless representatives of everyman and everywoman—as they tell deeply felt stories of parting, returning, suffering, and healing.

Penguin Global • 128 pp. • 978-0-14-302622-8 • $17.95

ELLEN BANDA-AAKU
PATCHWORK

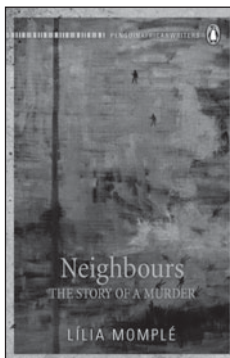

Destined from birth to inhabit two very different worlds—that of her father, a wealthy businessman, and that of her mother, his mistress—a young girl attempts to fashion a future from the jumbled pieces of life she's been given.

Penguin Global • 224 pp. • 978-0-14-352753-4 • $17.95

MIA COUTO
THE BLIND FISHERMAN

A compilation of Couto's early short stories that reveal an international voice adept at blending Mozambique's unique history with magical realism that transcends the legacy of Portuguese colonialism.

Penguin Global • 248 pp. • 978-0-14-302692-1 • $17.95

BESSIE HEAD
A QUESTION OF POWER

In this semi-autobiographical novel, Head tracks her protagonist's struggle to define her self despite her "impossible" heritage as the child of a black man and a white woman of social standing—an illicit union in South Africa, her country of birth.

Penguin Global • 200 pp. • 978-0-14-352848-7 • $17.95

LÍLIA MOMPLÉ
NEIGHBOURS: The Story of a Murder

Skillfully weaving together present events and age-old traditions, Moplé's narrative gives us invaluable insight into the consequences of Mozambique's complex history of conspiracy and destabilization.

Penguin Global • 144 pp. • 978-0-14-302621-1 • $17.95

FARIDA KARODIA
A SHATTERING OF SILENCE

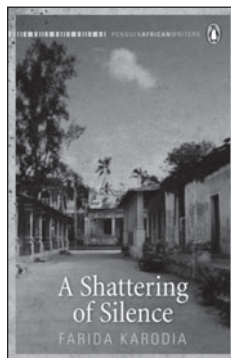

Karodia's fast-moving novel charts her eight-year-old protagonist's quest to find a place for herself in war-torn Mozambique, where—after witnessing a massacre in her rural village—she is caught between the white colonials and the local resistance.

Penguin Global • 256 pp. • 978-0-14-302647-1 • $17.95

PIUS ADESANMI
YOU'RE NOT A COUNTRY, AFRICA
A Personal History of the African Present

In this groundbreaking collection of essays, Adesanmi refashions the question of origin for the 21st century as he crisscrosses the continent and tries to unravel what Africa means to him as an African.

Penguin Global • 256 pp. • 978-0-14-352754-1 • $18.95

Civil War and State Formation

The Political Economy of War and Peace in Liberia

Felix Gerdes

This book investigates the political economy of civil war and democratic peace, arguing that the civil wars did not represent state decay but rather exhibited dynamics characteristic of state formation.

The Harvard Academy for International and Area Studies

The Harvard Academy Scholars Program 2014-2015

The Academy Scholars Program identifies and supports outstanding scholars at the start of their careers whose work combines disciplinary excellence in the social sciences (including history and law) with a command of the language, history, or culture of non-Western countries or regions. Their scholarship may elucidate domestic, comparative, or transnational issues, past or present.

The Academy Scholars are a select community of individuals with resourcefulness, initiative, curiosity, and originality, whose work in non-Western cultures or regions shows promise as a foundation for exceptional careers in major universities or international institutions. Harvard Academy Scholarships are open only to recent PhD (or comparable professional school degree) recipients and doctoral candidates. Those still pursuing a PhD should have completed their routine training and be well along in the writing of their theses before applying to become Academy Scholars; those in possession of a PhD longer than 3 years at the time of application are ineligible.

Academy Scholars are appointed for 2 years by the Harvard Academy for International and Area Studies and are provided time, guidance, and access to Harvard University facilities. They receive substantial financial and research assistance to undertake sustained projects of research and/or acquire accessory training in their chosen fields and areas. Some teaching is permitted but not required. The Senior Scholars, a distinguished group of senior Harvard University faculty members, act as mentors to the Academy Scholars to help them achieve their intellectual potential.

Post-doctoral Academy Scholars will receive an annual stipend of $65,000, and pre-doctoral Academy Scholars will receive an annual stipend of $31,000. Applications for the 2014-2015 class of Academy Scholars are due by October 1, 2013. Finalist interviews will take place in Cambridge on December 5. Notification of Scholarships will be made in January, 2014. For complete information on how to apply visit: www.wcfia.harvard.edu/academy.
