the philosophy forum

Editor: Rubin Gotesky

Executive Associate Editor: Ervin Laszlo

The Philosophy Forum publishes articles of philosophic significance on problems of direct human contact rather than on problems of a wholly technical nature. Each volume and each issue within a volume is devoted to a common topic.

The object of the Forum is to develop discussion, on a philosophic level, of issues of primary importance to mankind today; to have such issues discussed not merely by philosophers but by scientists, humanists, and others with a philosophic bent. The questions discussed are not technical insofar as they do not have a technical solution; they are questions which involve the clarification of attitudes, the illumination of problems, the search for common agreement as to what is best in the end.
