Ping Li, Pennsylvania State University, USA

Carmen Silva-Corvalán, University of Southern California, USA

Bilingualism: Language and Cognition is an international peer-reviewed journal focusing on bilingualism from a cognitive science perspective. The aims of the journal are to promote research on the bilingual person and to encourage debate in the field. The domains covered are the following: bilingual language competence, perception and production, bilingual language acquisition in children and adults, neurolinguistics of bilingualism (in normal and brain-damaged populations), and non-linguistic cognitive processes in bilinguals. Bilingualism carries articles and research notes on all aspects of the bilingual person, and is published three times a year.

Journal of Linguistics

The Journal of the Linguistics Association of Great Britain

Editors

Nigel Fabb, University of Strathclyde, UK
 Caroline Heycock, University of Edinburgh, UK
 Robert D. Borsley, University of Essex, UK

Journal of Linguistics has as its goal to publish articles that make a clear contribution to current debate in all branches of theoretical linguistics. The journal also provides an excellent survey of recent linguistics publications, with around thirty book reviews in each volume and regular review articles on major works marking important theoretical advances.

'The Journal of Linguistics is one of the top journals for theoretical linguistics. It's chock full of new ideas and wonderfully free of theoretical orthodoxy.' Ivan Sag, Stanford University.

Studies in Second Language Acquisition

Editor

Albert Valdman, Indiana University, USA

Associate Editor

Susan Gass, Michigan State University, USA

Studies in Second Language Acquisition is a refereed journal devoted to the scientific discussion of issues in second and foreign language acquisition of any language. Each volume contains four issues, one of which is generally devoted to a current topic in the field. The other three issues contain articles dealing with theoretical topics, some of which have broad pedagogical implications, and reports of quantitative and qualitative empirical research. Other articles include replication studies, State-of-the-Art articles, responses, book reviews, and book notices.

language teaching surveys and studies

Editorial policy

language teaching is an international peer-reviewed journal dedicated to providing up-to-date surveys, commentary and insights into current and recent research agendas in second-language teaching and learning broadly understood, and to promoting replication studies in the field. Although the survey articles are commissioned, they undergo a thorough reviewing procedure by members of the journal's editorial and advisory boards and by external reviewers from the submission of a written outline of the paper to pre-final drafts of the full text. Potential authors are welcome to submit proposals for survey articles on new topics or topics not covered sufficiently in the past volumes of the journal. Papers describing replication studies are unsolicited and subject to similarly rigorous peer-review process and final editorial decision as to publication.

The survey articles fall into a number of categories, depending on whether the focus is on international research on a given topic or a specific language, or on significant research conducted in a given country or wider geographical region. The journal's sections State-of-the-Art Article, A Language in Focus, A Country in Focus, Thinking Allowed, and Surveys of Ph.D./Ed.D. These reflect these briefs.

The journal also publishes accounts of research in progress in the form of articles based on keynote speeches delivered at international conferences and seminars, and in the form of short reports from research groups around the world. Potential authors are welcome to submit proposals for these forms of publication.

All submissions should consist of original work that has not been previously published and is not under consideration elsewhere. Authors of articles published in language teaching assign copyright to Cambridge University Press (with certain rights reserved). Authors will be asked to complete an appropriate form and send it to the publisher.

On publication, the author(s) of the main state-of-the-art paper receive a copy of the journal issue in which their work appears and all authors receive a PDF file with the final version of their contribution.

Submission of manuscripts

All manuscripts are to be submitted electronically in Word or PDF files to Graeme Porte (gporte@gmail.com). Following the review/editorial process, authors must be prepared to submit their work formatted in MS Word in the format specified in the Instructions for Contributors. Authors using other formatting programs will be advised by the editor as necessary.

Preparation of manuscripts

Please consult the Instructions for Contributors at journals.cambridge.org/lta before embarking on the preparation of the final version of the manuscript for publication. The Instructions include full guidelines on the components and the format of the manuscripts, including the house-style for references and final-version submission of table and figure files.

The language of the journal is English. Authors whose native language is not English are recommended to arrange for satisfactory proof-reading before submitting.

Proofs

Corresponding authors will be informed by e-mail that the proof of their contribution is available for collection in the form of a PDF file. Promptly afterwards, they will send their proof corrections electronically, as instructed on downloading the file.

This journal issue has been printed on FSC-certified paper and cover board. FSC is an independent, non-governmental, not-for-profit organization established to promote the responsible management of the world's forests. Please see www.fsc.org for information.
