

THEATRE RESEARCH INTERNATIONAL

VOLUME 18 NUMBER 3 AUTUMN 1993

Oxford University Press in Association with the International Federation for Theatre Research

NOTES TO CONTRIBUTORS

1. Contributions should be in English. Two copies of all manuscripts should be sent to the Editor, Department of Theatre Studies, University of Glasgow, Glasgow G12 8QF, Scotland.
2. Articles should not exceed 4000 words and must be accompanied by an abstract of approximately 200 words which should be a succinct condensation of the paper.
3. Manuscripts should be typed double-spaced with wide margins.
4. Illustrations (reproducible photographs or line drawings) should be carefully labelled and captioned.
5. Notes must be listed at the end of the manuscript.
6. All articles will be acknowledged upon receipt. Authors should be informed of a decision within four months of receipt.
7. Manuscripts should be checked carefully before submission to avoid difficulties at the proof stage.
8. Book reviews are usually by invitation, but the editors are always ready to consider offers to undertake reviewing.
9. Twenty-five complimentary offprints of each article will be sent to authors; additional offprints are available at the author's expense. Book reviewers will receive a complimentary copy of the journal.
10. Manuscripts are accepted on the understanding that they are original contributions, unpublished and not on offer to another publication.

Note to North American Publishers

Please send your review copies directly to Professor Gordon Armstrong, Department of Theatre, University of Rhode Island, Kingston, RI 02881-0820.

Theatre Research International is published by Oxford University Press for the International Federation for Theatre
Research/Fédération Internationale pour la Recherche Théâtrale.

The Journal covers the historical, critical, and theoretical study of documentation of drama, conceived as the art of the theatre and publishes original articles on performance, acting and production techniques, theatre architecture, and actors' social conditions. Contributions appear only in English, but articles are provided with résumés in French.

The motif on our cover was designed by Josef Svoboda for Theatre Research/Recherches Théâtrales in 1966 and presented to the International Federation for Theatre Research/Fédération Internationale pour la Recherche Théâtrale.

Theatre Research International is published three times a
