SOME RECENT PUBLICATIONS

THE AFRICAN TO-DAY

By DIEDRICH WESTERMANN

7s. 6d. net

'... an admirably balanced summary of the main phases of native African life and of the effects upon them of the penetration of Western civilization, so far as these complicated matters are at present understood;... indicates the main directions in which further study and investigation are needed.' Manchester Guardian.

PRACTICAL PHONETICS FOR STUDENTS OF AFRICAN LANGUAGES

By DIEDRICH WESTERMANN and IDA C. WARD

8s. 6d. net

'To all who are not prepared to trust to haphazard methods of acquiring some knowledge of African languages... should prove a guide of first-rate importance.'
United Empire.

THE AFRICAN LABOURER

By G. ST. J. ORDE BROWNE

17s. 6d. net

'All these acute and difficult problems are treated with great insight and the reader realizes the growing importance of labour administration in Africa.'
Bulletin of the International Bureau of Education.

VALENCE WOMEN

By E. D. EARTHY

'... in some respects a remarkable contribution to an aspect of primitive culture which the average male anthropologist finds extremely difficult to investigate fully.' Cape Times.
