

More place-name metonyms

Beehive – the New Zealand government
Beijing – the Chinese government
Bollywood – the Indian film industry
Brussels – the European Union
Buckingham Palace – the Queen or a spokesperson
Camelot – King Arthur and his world
Canberra – the Australian federal government
Capitol Hill – the US Congress
Cardiff – the Welsh Assembly
City, the – London's financial institutions
Crown, the – the British monarchy
Downing Street – the British government
Fifth Avenue – upmarket retail stores in New York
Foggy Bottom – the US Department of State
Hague, The – various international courts
Hollywood – the American film industry
Holyrood – the Scottish government
Kremlin, The – the Russian government
London – especially when seen from abroad, the British government
Nashville – the country music industry
Savile Row – high-quality tailoring
Silicon Valley – the US digital industry
Stormont – the Northern Ireland government
Vatican, The – the Roman Catholic Church
Wall Street – US financial markets
Washington – the US federal government
Watergate – a political scandal
Wembley – the British football cup final
Westminster – the UK parliament
Whitehall – the British civil service

Football metonyms, where the ground stands for the team

Old Trafford – Manchester United
Anfield – Liverpool
Emirates – Arsenal
Stamford Bridge – Chelsea
Elland Road – Leeds