

Liebig company. Falstaff / Liebig Company's Fleisch-Extract. [Antwerp: 1893]. Folger ART 265443.

Liebig's Fleisch-Extract, or Liebig's Extract of Meat Company, distributed sets of collectible cards with their cartons of highly concentrated beef stock. This card shows a quintessential scene from The Merry Wives of Windsor, Act 3, Scene 3, when the titular wives trick Falstaff into hiding in a laundry basket full of dirty clothes. It is one of six cards in LEMCO's Falstaff set, which features three illustrations from the King Henry IV plays paired with three illustrations from The Merry Wives of Windsor.

From an original in the Folger Shakespeare Library
Licensed under a Creative Commons Attribution-ShareAlike 4.0 International License (CC BY-SA 4.0)