Grafton, Richard. A chronicle at large. London: 1569. Folger STC 12147 copy 1.

Richard Grafton's A chronicle at large is a possible source for Shakespeare's The Second Part of King Henry VI. The Chronicle begins as a history of the world and, as it approaches the sixteenth century, narrows into the history of England. Other famous such histories of the period include Raphael Holinshed's Chronicles, also a source for Shakespeare.
